The Power of Values

Activate the behaviors, practices, and protocols that make your values real.

If someone could walk through the halls of your workplace, what would they guess your values to be? Are they the same values you share in employee onboarding? The ones you have written on the wall?

Many companies build out an impressive set of aspirational values, but they don't go far enough. They don't activate them in real life. Cultural coherence - when the way people act everyday is consistent with what they say they believe - is not only a matter of ethics. It's a matter of true organizational performance.

This thought-provoking, action-inducing workshop is designed to introduce you to a process you can apply to translate values into behaviors and build cultural coherence within your own workplace. Participants will:

- Discover how organizational culture can truly transform (or disrupt) results
- Identify tangible behaviors that will bring a cultural value to life*
- Explore how to automate values within relevant team processes and organizational systems

*This workshop will focus on one cultural value (inclusion, integrity, teamwork, etc. – you choose!). Your team will practice a values activation process with this defined value and equip themselves to repeat the process with other values in the future.
